Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1655 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 49, Chapter 6, Part 30, is amended by adding the following as new sections:

49-6-3026.

(a) A student who participates in an activity or program sponsored by 4-H must be credited as present by the school in which the student is enrolled in the same manner as an educational field trip. Notwithstanding § 49-6-3022, a school principal, or the principal's designee, shall not count a student absent for participating in an activity or program sponsored by 4-H.

(b) A student must have the opportunity to make up any school work missed while the student was participating in an activity or program sponsored by 4-H, and shall not have the student's class grades adversely affected for lack of attendance or participation due to the student's participation in an activity or program sponsored by 4-H.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a school principal, or the principal's designee, shall not credit a student who participates in an activity or program sponsored by 4-H as present if the student's participation in an activity or program sponsored by 4-H occurs during:

This is a draft version of the House Journal and is to be considered UNOFFICIAL. It will become the official record of the House after it has been adopted by the House.

(1) The schedule established by the commissioner of education for the administration of the Tennessee comprehensive assessment program (TCAP) tests; or

(2) Any period of time for which the student has been suspended, expelled, or assigned to an alternative school or alternative program under part 34 of this chapter if the student's suspension, expulsion, or assignment to an alternative school or alternative program would otherwise preclude the student from participating in an educational field trip.

(a) A student who participates in basic training required by a branch of the United States armed forces must be credited as present by the school in which the student is enrolled in the same manner as an educational field trip.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a student may only be credited as present for purposes of this section for up to ten (10) days of basic training.

(c) A student must have the opportunity to make up any school work missed while the student was participating in basic training, and shall not have the student's class grades adversely affected for lack of attendance or participation due to the student's participation in basic training. This subsection (c) does not prohibit or impair a student from receiving high school credit toward graduation for completing basic training under § 49-6-1209, or require a student to complete additional school work before the student may substitute credit for basic training for the credits identified in § 49-6-1209.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a school principal, or the principal's designee, shall not credit a student who participates in basic training as present if the student's participation in basic training occurs during:

(1) The schedule established by the commissioner of education for the administration of the Tennessee comprehensive assessment program (TCAP) tests; or

(2) Any period of time for which the student has been suspended, expelled, or assigned to an alternative school or alternative program under part 34 of this chapter if the student's suspension, expulsion, or assignment to an alternative school or alternative program would otherwise preclude the student from participating in an educational field trip.

Amendment No. 1

This is a draft version of the House Journal and is to be considered UNOFFICIAL. It will become the official record of the House after it has been adopted by the House.

AMEND House Bill No. 1914 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 54-14-101, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 54-14-102, is amended by deleting subsection (a) and substituting instead the following:

(a) A person owning any land, where ingress or egress to and from which is cut off or obstructed entirely from a public road or highway by the intervening land of another, or who has no outlet from the land to a public road in the state, by reason of the intervening land of another, is given the right to have a private easement or right-of-way not exceeding twenty-five feet (25') condemned and set aside for the benefit of the land over and across the intervening land for the purpose of ingress and egress and extending utility lines, including, but not limited to, electric, natural gas, water, sewage, telephone, or cable television to the enclosed land. Maintenance of the easement or right-of-way shall be the responsibility of the person granted the easement or right-of-way. Gates or fencing that restricts access to the subservient land may not be erected. In counties with a metropolitan form of government, the maximum permissible width for an easement or right-of-way is fifteen feet (15').

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 54, Chapter 14, is amended by adding the following language as a new section:

Notwithstanding § 54-14-102, there is no right to have an easement or right-of-way condemned and set aside for the benefit of the land surrounded or enclosed by the lands of any other person if the court determines that the ingress or egress to and from the surrounded or enclosed land is cut off or obstructed entirely from a public road or highway as a result of the intentional and knowing action of the owner of the surrounded or enclosed land.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 54-14-111, is amended by deleting the section and substituting instead the following:

The jury is authorized to locate the easement or right-of-way at a place where the easement or right-of-way will be of service to the petitioner and cause the least amount of monetary damage as practicable to the value of the intervening land.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 54-14-113, is amended by deleting the section and substituting instead the following:

(a) The report may be modified by the court and the easement or right-of-way may be granted or decreed to the petitioners as the court may deem proper upon the payment to the defendant, or to the clerk of the court for the defendant's use, of the damages assessed, with costs and, if awarded pursuant to subsection (b), attorney's fees.

This is a draft version of the House Journal and is to be considered UNOFFICIAL. It will become the official record of the House after it has been adopted by the House.

(b) In addition to the damages and costs awarded to the defendant as provided by §§ 54-14-103 and 54-14-109, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the defendant. The court shall not award attorney's fees if the court finds the defendant has acted in bad faith.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1544 by deleting all language after the caption and substituting instead the following:

WHEREAS, on August 8, 1863, prior to the implementation of President Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation in East Tennessee, Andrew Johnson, future seventeenth president of the United States and then military governor of Tennessee, freed his slaves in the area of Greeneville, Tennessee, located in Greene County; and

WHEREAS, the African-American community in the vicinity of Greene County soon began to hold annual celebrations on August 8, known as the "Eighth of August Celebration" and "Emancipation Day," which celebrations are documented at least as early as 1875 in The Greeneville American, and over one hundred years ago in The Greeneville Herald and Knoxville Sentinel; and

WHEREAS, "Emancipation Day" has been observed in several neighboring states, including Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, Arkansas, and Missouri, evidencing the great interest and enthusiasm for "Emancipation Day"; and

WHEREAS, the Beck Cultural Exchange Center has hosted an annual Eighth of August Jubilee for the last five years in commemoration of emancipation in Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly recognized August 8 as a day of special observance by passing Chapter 15 of the Public Acts of 2007; and

WHEREAS, Emancipation Day should be a legal holiday instead of a day of special observance; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 15-1-101, is amended by designating the existing language as subsection (a) and adding the following as a new subsection:

(b) The Sunday prior to August 8, known as "Emancipation Day", is a legal holiday.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
